

Inception Arm Chair

33010 | Inception Collection

DESCRIPTION

More than just a seat, the Inception Arm Chair redefines modern outdoor living with its sleek, mid-century inspired design. The elegant frame seems to float above the ground, supported by beautifully fluted teak wood arms that not only catch the eye, but also offer a satisfying, tactile experience. The intricate Solara woven fiber creates a stunning contrast to the warm, golden-blond teak, adding a contemporary twist to the collection's mid-century roots.
