

Opal 72" Backless Bench

63470G | Opal Collection

DESCRIPTION

A refreshing change from your garden-variety bench, the Opal 72" Bench from Jensen Outdoor is that landscape accent you've longed for. Six feet of seating comfort is just as welcome on a waterfront deck or tucked beneath a dining table as it is gracing your garden. More than a place to rest, the linear design of the seat crafted from individual slats of Ipe timber and its subtly tapered legs demand a second look. As part of the Opal Collection, this handsome bench flaunts artisan craftsmanship and transitional design expressed in sustainably-sourced, 100% FSC-Certified Ipe timber from dry, tropical forests. Durable Ipe timber is able to withstand years of weather, moisture and sun for a lifetime of enjoyment.
